

My Breath:

- Close your eyes, take a deep breath, and relax.
- Open your eyes and use a crayon to draw lines or shapes that represent your breath.

This activity invites mindfulness by using drawing to visually represent your breath, allowing you to deepen your awareness of your breathing patterns and connect with the present moment.